Brief Life Sketch

Er. Ranjan Agrawal, Chairman

The college management is in the hands of a capable, very well versed Engineer who is dedicated to the cause and spread of technical education in backward area of Haryana State. He has taken up every cause as a new challenge and always endeavored to maintain high standards of perfection and quality and achieved his target. He is an embodiment of learning for service of society at large.

It is interesting to know that Er. Ranjan Agrawal was born in an average family of medicos, but chose to be an Engineer. He did his schooling from Gwalior and graduated in Civil Engineering from M.I.T.S., Gwalior, about eighteen years back and in short span of time, exhibited his brilliance and grasp of Civil Structural designs, planning and execution of various projects, including Environmental, Pollution Control Projects, namely, Sewerage Treatment Plants, Sewer Lines.

With faith in self, unassuming nature, uncanny anticipation and painstaking to take care of minutest details, he is essentially a self made man who has been rising in his sphere steadily.

He is a keen lover of flora and fauna and in fact he is running a Floriculture Project with atomization. His love for Nature reflects from our Haryana College of Technology & Management, Kaithal. This all has shaped with his personal interest and under direct care. His interest in needs of society has led him to practice what he believes in, spread of technical education, protection of environment and ecology, self sustenance of Institutions, floriculture, and above all rural development.

At this young age, he has emerged as a visionary and KARMYOGI to successful achievement of his aims. Above all, he is associated with several philanthropic associations at various places and has ever been helpful to the poor and the needy in his own ways.

Dr. Manmohan Gupta

God Himself never appears on the earth but always sends His Angels to help His creatures and Dr. Manmohan Gupta is one of those God's Angels. He is the Vice-President of Haryana College of Technology & Management, Kaithal. But by profession he is renowned Physician. He is well versed in his profession. Not only a single patient has any grudges against him. He is serving just for the sake of humanity. He has not fixed up any charges for his services rendered by him for his patients. He never expects in return while helping the person in need.

Er. G. K. Sethi

Mr. G.K. Sethi was born in a middle class family in West-Pakistan. He started his schooling from Kasauli in Himachal Pradesh and B.E. Civil Engg. From Punjab University, Chandigarh in the year 1964. He joined government service after graduation and started service carrier by joining Military Engineering Services during the year 1964. he was associated with design, construction and supervision of various prestigious projects such as design of Engine Test Bed at 3 B.R.D. at Chandigarh Airport, where he had an opportunity to work with the Russian Engineers. He designed the swimming pool for Gorkha Training Centre at Subhatu (H.P.), where high swimming facilities were also provided. He was also associated with construction and supervision of A.W.D. workshop at Udhampur (J & K), where repairs of Armoured tanks damaged during the war are repaired.

Subsequently he joined Haryana State P.W.D. B&R Department from where he retired in 1996. He always believed in the principal of three Ps. i.e. he always tried to satisfy public, politicians and the press. During the service, he always enjoyed good rapport with all the above components of society, which is a pre-requisite for being a successful administrator and engineer. He is a self-made man and has risen in life, achieved his goals without any financial and political help from his family and relatives.

When the decision was taken to establish Engineering College at Kaithal in the name and style of H.C.T.M., Kaithal, he offered his services to be available whole time for construction, supervision, administration and management. He left no stone unturned in bringing the college to its present level. He has used his life long experience of Engineering and Administrative back ground to bring Haryana College of Technology & Management to its present level.

Mrs. Sudesh Sethi

Mrs. Sudesh Sethi was born in the family of successful businessman of Saharnpur, her father had vast interest in Agriculture and chain of restaurant and brick kilns. Her earlier education from schooling to college was done at Saharanpur from where she completed her B.A., B.Ed. She is very cool headed and far sighted lady, who had been a pillar of strength to her husband, Sh G.K. Sethi, our Managing Director. She has been handling the accounts of Board of Governors very sincerely. She is a dedicated and hard working lady, who is always associated with the day to day development of H.C.T.M., Kaithal and at times had been giving very valuable suggestions and guidance for uplift of the college, its hostels and its environments. She always finds time to spare from her busy life for taking interest in the development of the infrastructure and other college activities and takes keen interest in the day to day achievements of Girls students and the college.

Mrs. Monika Agrawal

Mrs. Monika Agrawal, the member of the Governing Body has great qualities of head and heart. She is bold, fearless, intelligent, and dynamic. She showed signs of leadership at an early age. She has very strong decision power. She knows that India lives in villages. She is well familiar with the problems of poor masses. Her greatest quality is her willingness to help others in their need. That is why she lays stress on rural uplift. Under her leadership we are marching steadily towards quality of education, plenty and prosperity. On the basis of her administrative qualities she played an unforgettable role in the establishment of Haryana College of Technology Kaithal & Gurgaon Institute of Technology. She is not only a successful administrator, organizer, executive but also a very dedicated housewife.
